Subject: National Day of the American Cowboy celebrated as Cowboys on the Green golf scramble

Worland, Wyoming – The Guardians of the Range is hosting its annual National Day of the American Cowboy celebration in the form of a four-man scramble golf tournament, Cowboys on the Green. The fundraiser scramble is Saturday, June 12, at the Green Hills Golf Club in Worland.

The registration fee is $70 before June 1, and $85 after June 1. Registration includes lunch, green fees, and a cart rental. To guarantee a cart, contact Tori Dietz before June 1, at 307.347.4026. The first 50 entries received before June 1, will be included in a special drawing for a cowboy cookout package to include a cooler, steaks, wine, and other goodies.

Registration begins at 8 a.m., and golfers tee-off with a shotgun start at 9:00 a.m. Prizes will be awarded to the first, second, and third place teams. Individual golfers will have opportunities to win various hole prizes throughout the course. Each golfer will receive door prizes, and have the opportunity to purchase tickets in a 50/50 cash raffle.

The Guardians are a non-profit organization dedicated to sound science and community partnership in public land management. They address grazing issues on behalf of permittees on the Shoshone and Bighorn National Forests, the Cody and Worland BLM Resource Management areas, and their surrounding communities. Funds raised will support the Guardians' efforts.
